DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ALTON BROOKS PARKER,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,

HENRY C. DAVIS,

OF WEST VIRGINIA.

FOR CONGRESS, 10th DISTRICT,

HON. FRANK A. HOPKINS,

OF FLOYD COUNTY.

The bolting Democrats are Republican candidates for office in the Louisville district, but they have no chance to win. They can neither get the support of their old political associates, nor that of their new ones. The former are glad to be rid of them, and the latter have no confidence in them.

The Kind You Have Always Bought

DR. HUNTER'S friends in the Eleventh district are being indicted for frauds in connection with the recent race for Congress. If the Doctor would tell what he knows about State politics the penitentiaries would have to be enlarged to make room for his convicted enemies within his own party.

Doesn't Respect Old Age.
It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary is the case of Dr. King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Fever, Constipation, all yield to this perfect pill. 25c., at all druggists.

Vote Democratic and vote straight.

Four, and eight years ago every railroad, bank and corporation in the State was predicting eternal disaster if Bryan were elected, and incidentally dropping money into the Republican corruption fund. This year they are out of politics. Whatever the reason may be it means more Democratic votes, and while we got along very well without them in 1900, there is no need of borrowing trouble.

A Runaway Bicycle.
Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured. It's just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles. 25c., at all druggists.

THERE has never been a campaign freer from personal slander and vituperation than this one. Judge Parker set the example by his urgent insistence that no word against the character of President Roosevelt should be printed in the official text-book. Of course the partisan newspapers on both sides are predicting that the country will go to the devil in a hand-basket unless their particular choice is elected, but the candidates themselves are conducting the campaign on the highest possible plane. It is a great gain for sanity and decency.

Not a Sick Day Since.
"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C., writes. Only 50c., at all druggists.

WHAT KENTUCKY WILL DO?
There is every assurance of a splendid Democratic majority in this State. The thorough work of the Campaign Committee has aroused the voters to a sense of the responsibility that rests upon them. The organization is complete in every precinct, a giant task requiring the utmost skill and patience. This effective appeal to the thousands of precinct chairmen and sub-committeemen has been supplemented by the generous advocacy of the State press. The Democratic newspapers, realizing that this is not a boodle campaign, have opened their columns freely to the list of speakers' appointment and to all other information necessary to the spread of news in a National contest. They have given columns to the dissemination of Democratic doctrine, thus equipping the voters with arguments and encouraging them to individual effort.

The Democratic orators have been particularly gracious. Many of them are busy professional men, but they have left their offices and, under the direction of the Speakers' Bureau have traveled night and day to keep engagements in remote precincts. The result of the united effort of the rank and file is a reunited party, eager to give proof of its devotion.

We may not reach 40,000, and may have to be content with 20,000 majority, but whatever the figure may be let it be decisive. Kentucky is no longer a Republican State. That much is certain. The extent of its redemption will be known on November 9th, and it will depend upon the Democratic voters to set it at such a figure that never again will the party of fraud and assassination lay claim to the State.

Christ Was a Democrat.
J. F. Sommer is a preacher. At one time he was city correspondent for the Louisville Commercial. For reasons that need not be named he gave up the job, and devotes himself to going to mission fields largely for work.

He is a strong temperance man now and has a good reason for it. He helped me in the Maddox precinct fight. After that he got to Olympia, the home of Col. John B. Lane, an ex-Morgan man and a Goebel Democrat of the 32d degree.

Bro. Sommer is an intense Republican. He loves to trace pedigrees or genealogies. He soon said:

"Col. Lane, your mother's name was Sommer?"
"Yes sah," said Lane.
"As that is my name, we must be some kin," said Sommer.
"No sah, not one bit of kin," replied Lane.
"We spell our names the same way, S-o-m-m-e-r, and she was from Fleming county, and my name is John F., John Fleming, we must be kin," asserted Sommer.

"No kin, sah! no kin at all sah," was the curt reply.

"You talk like you know," said Sommer.

"I do know sah," said Lane.

"How do you know?" asked Sommer.

"I'll tell you how, sah! Never one drop of Republican blood ever flowed in any of my ancestors' veins, that's how," said Lane.
"You talk like a man can't be a Republican and be a Christian," rather warmly stated Sommer.

"He can't sah! He can't be a Republican and be like Christ," hotly stated Col. Lane.

"You can't prove that," was the defiant utterance of S.

"I can, sah, and will, if you want me to," said Lane, with great emphasis.

"Try it," said Sommer, with a dog-dare in his tone.

"All right sah!" said Lane.

"Didn't Jesus come to the earth on a mission?" "Of course he did," answered Sommer.

"Was not His mission the greatest good to the greatest number, sah?" followed quickly from Lane.

"It was," said Sommer.

Then Lane fairly shouted: "Pure Democracy, sah! Jesus was a Democrat, sah!"
Sommer wilted—Rev. R. B. Neal, in Grayson Bugle.
